My last letter

It's 12:30 am n I'm still here
Missing u n wishing u were near writing a letter just for u thinking about everything wrong I do And all the mistakes that in our love I made
And with time our memories will fade
How is it possible that my fiancé dumped me n whats worse she wont forgive me everything in my soul is destroyied N this sharp pain has me so annoyed n in this cold room I won't lie
If I don't get ur kiss I will die
I don't know why this love story ended up this way but in paper I'll let u know what I want to say My dear princess this is the last letter I write My last words in forgetness lose sight
Dear love why u won't talk n hate me so much I'm letting destiny get a grib n I won't stay in touch
I understand that our relationship is over n done
 But I'll keep on loving u even though ur gone
I swear I never wanted to hurt u N I have tried everything to contact u
But u push me away like am hideous dog
I believe in heaven out of all this they keep a log Every minute that passes by I'm filled with hate n resentment
When u send me the picture of ur boyfriend u made a statement
I know at the end u will regret it I hope that what I'm going thrue u never get it This letter started inspired on my favorite song these are all my words n I made it on my own Take care of our son that loyal big guy tasselhoff
This letter is attached with money for the debt I need to pay off thank you for going on the road n helping me I will pay u everything Ull see I hope he respects u loves u n marries you Because if I was in his place
With a happy face
 I would say I do"
